2004 ENTITY SHIRAZ

REVIEWS

97 points, Huon Hooke, The Penguin Australian Good Wine Guide, 2007

A wonderfully concentrated, yet elegant statement of Barossa Shiraz, this wine is all class. Aromas of stewed plums, berries, spice, polished new leather, cedar and wood smoke are deliciously complex. All is harmony in the mouth too, with velvety texture, persistent flavour, seamless structure and a super-long finish.

95 points, James Halliday, 2007 Halliday Wine Companion

Deep colour; full-bodied, but supple and smooth; concentrated blackberry and plum with seamless oak and fine tannins; great length.

95 points, Robert Parker Jr, The Wine Advocate, October 2006

Voluptuous, full-bodied multi-layered texture and finish suggest this brilliant Shiraz should drink beautifully for 12-15+ years.

93 points, Stephen Tanzers' International Wine Cellar, July 2006

This has remarkable clarity and precision for its depth and intensity of flavour, with a juicy quality that carries through the long, potent finish. A fabulous combination of power, weight, sweetness and focus, not to mention a stunning bargain for the quality.
