2014 PLEXUS SGM

REVIEWS

94 points, James Halliday, 2017 Halliday Wine Companion

As is appropriate, complex, but largely fruit-driven, with red cherries/berries and plums to the fore, oak and (particularly) tannins taking a back seat.

94 points, Tyson Stelzer, Barossa Living Magazine, September 2016

Glossy, tangy, sumptuous dark berry fruits form an enticing core supported by impressively gauged dark chocolate oak, finely structured, beautifully polished tannins and well integrated acidity. It lingers long with even line. An impressive vintage for Plexus.

Rich, dark and spicy with chocolate nougat and subtle floral notes. Medium bodied, savoury, spicy, fruity and fleshy all at once, textured grainy tannin, balanced acidity, blackberry with some red fruited freshness on a long finish. Feels almost minerally. Tastes great.

A sophisticated, spicy mix of date bread, cherry compote and clove flavours. Plump and velvety, with persistence and harmony on the finish. Shiraz, Grenache and Mourvedre.
