

J O H N
D U V A L
W I N E S

2018 PLEXUS SGM

REVIEWS

95 Points, Jane Faulkner Halliday Wine Companion Aug 2020

A very satisfying combo with no variety fighting for the lead. Expect a melody of red fruits lightly spiced with a fleck of herbs for good measure and meaty-stock flavours, too. The savoury and shapely tannins in tune with the more medium-weighted palate. Finishes fresh and buoyant. A ripper drink.

94 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, Wine Spectator, April 2020

Striking, with dark, compact notes of huckleberry, wild blackberry, blueberry and espresso that are fragrant, pure and generous. Velvety tannins and details of cigar box, gunpowder tea, freshly cracked black pepper and spice go on and on. Epic finish. Shiraz, Grenache and Mourvèdre.

93 points, John Raynolds, Vinous, October 2020

Saturated, deep-rimmed ruby. Expressive, smoke-tinged cherry and blueberry aromas are complemented by exotic spice, floral and liquorice flourishes. Sappy. Penetrating and seamless in texture, offering pliant red and blue fruit. Spice cake and candied violet flavours that become firmer through the mid-palate. Finishes with impressive, spicy persistence and with polished tannins adding supple grip.

John and Tim Duval

