2012 PLEXUS MARSANNE ROUSSANNE VIOGNIER

REVIEWS

93 points, Mike Bennie, WBM Magazine, September 2013

Marsanne, Roussanne and Viognier swim among each other in this surprisingly taut, finely meshed white wine. Minerality in stone and slate, the phenolics of powdery apples and perfume set to floral - it's a compelling rendition of the Rhone trio.

92 points, Josh Reynolds, The International Wine Clear, July 2013

Intensely perfumed nose offers fresh and dried pit fruits, jasmine and floral honey. Bright minerality adds lift and cut to the ripe orchard and pit fruit flavors, which are given a refreshingly bitter edge by a note of lime zest. Gains flesh with air and finished with pliant, very persistent orange and nectarine flavors. An appealing blend of richness and nerve.

A three-way 'Rhone' white blend from the Barossa Valley, Plexus has appetising pear, apple, patisserie and heathland marsanne-roussanne aromas along with a dab of spicy oak.
