2014 PLEXUS MARSANNE ROUSSANNE VIOGNIER

REVIEWS

94 points, Mike Bennie, WBM Magazine, 2015

John Duval might be best known for his work with red grapes, but his Rhone-inspired white blend is no slouch. It's lighter and fresher, finer than expected, but still delivers elements of each variety in the mesh. There's a slickness to the texture, spice nuance and a ripe, fresh stone-fruit profile in the mix. Wonderful balance too.

92+ points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Advocate, October 2016

The 2014 Plexus Blanc reveals pronounced notes of warm peaches, baking bread, honeyed pears and baking spices. Medium-bodied, it is wonderfully fresh in the mouth with a satiny texture and great persistence.

Top Rated Wines, Peter Bourne, Gourmet Traveller WINE, December 2015

Aromas of stone fruits, honeysuckle and dried apricot lead to a medium-bodied palate with good texture, balanced acidity and a dry finish. A vibrant blend of marsanne, roussanne and viognier with nectarine, mandarin and pear flavours.
