2015 ANNEXUS GRENACHE

REVIEWS

95+ points, Mike Bennie, The Wine Front, July 2017

Power, grace, finesse, flavour, tannin-structure, deliciousness, drinkability. Couldn't ask for more. This is as elegant and seamless a grenache I have seen from Australia. Fine web of tannin gives additional succulence to cool, even, medium weight red fruit and spice flavours. Epic in length, total restraint, pure-feeling and energetic. It's beautiful wine here. Utterly.

95 points, Gourmet Traveller WINE, August/September 2017

It combines ripe, red plums with vanilla from oak, had good overall balance and finishes with firm tannins. Liqueurish allsorts, raspberry jubes and pomegranate aromas with star anise and fresh fennel seed.

94+ points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Advocate, November 2016

Made from 100% Grenache, the medium garnet-purple colored 2015 Annexus has a seriously intense perfume of crushed cherries and black raspberries with roses and violets plus suggestions of anise, cinnamon stick and dark chocolate. The rich, powerful, concentrated palate sports beautifully velvety tannins with great freshness and a very long, peppery finish.
